Boy's Fingers Are Cut Off By Lawn Mower.

While playing with a new lawn mower on the west lawn of the court house, Jack Gott, six-year-old son of Jailer S. B. Gott, suffered the loss of two fingers on his right hand yesterday. The keen blade of the mower severed the first two fingers, near the knuckle joint. An operation was performed and the lad is resting well.

Several children were playing on the lawn and it is thought a younger tot pushed the mower while the boy had his fingers near its blades.—Paducah Sun.

Dynamite Is Stolen.

Hun Plot Feared

Princeton, KY., June 14.—A hundred pounds of dynamite was stolen from the Katterjohn Construction company here last night and much uneasiness has been caused as it is feared the theft was committed by German sympathizers. Troop trains are due through here and a close guard is being kept on bridges and tracks.

NATIONAL WAR SAVINGS STAMP DAY FRIDAY, JUNE 28.

Will your dollars help Crittenden county to go "over the top?" An idle dollar is a "slacker" dollar. Don't have any SLACKER dollars!

A country that is good enough for the best manhood of our land to fight and die for is good enough for YOU to save for. Make up your mind now as to how much you will invest on June 28.

Uncle Sam wants to raise $2,000,000 by Jan. 1, 1919. He pays you interest at 4 1/2 per cent, compounded quarterly, a higher rate of interest than any bank in America would pay you—an investment as safe as the nation.

Invest $4.17 on June 28, 1918, and draw $5.00 on Jan. 1, 1923. Invest $83.40 on June 28, 1918, and draw $100.00 on Jan. 1, 1923. Can you think of a better investment?

Every man in the county will be asked to buy on or before June 28. You will be expected to invest every dollar you can. When a man asks you to buy War Savings Stamps DON'T REFUSE this chance to help the boys "over there."

Your dollars will help America to win. Tell your friends that June 28 is the day on which every man, woman and child in Crittenden county will be expected to buy War Savings Stamps. Ask your postmaster or any rural carrier. BUY NOW.

MAYOR'S PROCLAMATION.

To the Citizens of Marion:

Friday, June 28th, 1918, is officially designated NATIONAL WAR SAVINGS DAY by the President of the United States and the Secretary of the Treasury. All loyal citizens of this community will accordingly devote the afternoon of said day, beginning at two o'clock, to attending the public meeting of your neighborhood and to subscribing for a specified amount of War Saving Stamps, to be purchased during the remaining months of the year.

All who are able should pledge themselves to save and invest to the limit allowed by law, and should promote the sale of this valuable Government security in large amounts during Pledge Week in Kentucky, June 24 to June 28 next.

J. FRANK DODGE, Mayor.

Corydon, Jim Castell, driver of the car, drove away and was not captured last night. Officers are looking for him to appear as a witness before the coroner's inquest.

6 months. This is accomplished by the aid of the National Council of Defense composed of Dr. Frazier, Dr. Orme, Dick Cruce and J. Robert Bird.

Ministers And Members Meeting

The ministers and members meeting of the Ohio River association will meet with 1st. Salem Baptist Church June 28-29-30.

The introductory sermon will be preached by Eld. T. A. Conway of Smithland. The Salem people will gladly entertain all who come.

Largest Tomato Crop

D. W. Stone of Fruitland farm has out the largest crop of tomatoes ever grown by one individual in this country. He has contracted 1000 cases tomatoes to the Government for the army 1918. This is enough tomatoes feeding a can to a man per day to feed one man 65 years, 50 men one year and 4 months, 100 men from Jan 1st to August 28th. He shipped tomatoes, this year to Camp Taylor enough to feed one man 15 years, 10 men 1 year and Guthrie Gibson had the misfortune to be bitten on one of his toes, one day last week by a copperhead snake. He called his physician and had the wound treated immediately but his foot and leg were badly swollen from the effects of the bite and he is laid up unable to do any work, but Dr. Perry is treating him and thinks if no complications arise he will soon be well and able to resume his work.

A Little Patriot

Last year when Charles Reed was confined to his bed, the editor sent him a little token of remembrance in the shape of an all wool bunting flag in fast colors which some friends of the little sufferer offered to put on a pole for him. He accepted their proffered kindness and directed them to put up the pole so he could see the stars and stripes from his window when lying in bed and this was done. The pole having become unsafe it was taken down recently and he is now preparing to put another up that Old Glory may float again at the Reed Homestead.

Henderson School Teacher Refuses Gifts For Any Campaigns—Is Christadelphians

Henderson, Ky., June 15.—For her refusal to contribute to war activities, Miss Beulah Green, a teacher in the public school of Henderson county and a member of a religious sect known as Christadelphians, was refused a re-appointment as teacher by the county board of education Saturday.

Miss Green declared she had conscientious religious scruples against war in any form. She flatly refused to donate to the American Red Cross, buy thrift stamps or subscribe to any of the war activities, stating that her religious principles forbade her from aiding her country in its war program.

During her five years as a teacher in the county schools Miss Green made a splendid record as a teacher.

Christadelphians are known as a religious sect. They are also called Thomasites and were founded in the United States in 1850 by John Thomas, a physician. The words composing the name are taken from the Greek and mean Brothers of Christ. The members of the sect reject the Trinity and the natural immortality of the soul, believing that the righteous only receive eternal life. They believe also in the proximate personal coming of Christ and lay stress upon the cleansing influence of the Holy Spirit and the divine word of God. The sect practices baptism by immersion and has no ordained ministers. Believing in the absolute brotherhood of man, its members are opposed to war in any form.

Much interest is being shown here concerning the coming of Capt. George Frederick Campbell, "The Soldier of the Sky," who in two years' flying on the western front brought down 18 Hun aeroplanes. He will tell his thrilling story on the Sixth night of the Chautauqua.

The afternoon entertainments will begin this year at 3:30 p. m. Night sessions will start at 8:30 p. m. The time of the children's hour will be announced from the platform on the opening day.

A government war tax will be collected on all Chautauqua season tickets this year. The tax must be paid once and for all before the ticket is used for the first time.

In order to avoid delays at the gate and standing in the sun on the opening afternoon arrangements have been made so that the tax can be paid to the Providence Enterprise:

REDPATH 7 DAY CHAUTAUQUA

Opens Here Tuesday, June 25th, With Greatest Program Ever: Wonderful Attractions.

The Marion Redpath Seven Day Chautauqua will open here next Tuesday afternoon June 25th, at 3:30 p. m., on the Cort Pierce lot on Ford's Ferry St.

Not in all the time that the Redpath Chautauqua has been coming to Marion has the program offered been so well rounded nor have the individual attractions ever been better. With such attractions as "The Chocolate Soldier," Sir John Foster Fraser, Margery Maxwell and Dunbar's Revue as only a few of 15 big numbers, the week should prove to be most inspiring and entertaining.

The native Croatian Tamburica Orchestra is the offering for Tuesday afternoon. In native costumes the Croatians will give a grand concert, playing upon tamburicas. The tamburica is the peculiar musical instrument of Croatia. It has been known to the people of the western world only a comparatively short time.

Lou J. Beauchamp, known every where as "The Humorous Philosopher," is the attraction at night. Mr. Beauchamp is one of the great entertainers and lecturers of the American platform.

Much interest is being shown here concerning the coming of Capt. George Frederick Campbell, "The Soldier of the Sky," who in two years' flying on the western front brought down 18 Hun aeroplanes. He will tell his thrilling story on the Sixth night of the Chautauqua.

The afternoon entertainments will begin this year at 3:30 p. m. Night sessions will start at 8:30 p. m. The time of the children's hour will be announced from the platform on the opening day.

Scene From the Great Light Opera, "The Chocolate Soldier," Coming Here Chautauqua Week

"The Chocolate Soldier," Oscar Strauss' great light opera, will be presented by a company of 80, including orchestra, on the fifth night of the Redpath Chautauqua here this season. So great was the success of "The Mikado" last season that the Redpath management decided to present a light opera again this year, and in choosing "The Chocolate Soldier" selected an opera which holds a remarkable record for long metropolitan runs. For three years "The Chocolate Soldier" ran at the Casino Theatre in New York, and in the Redpath production this year are a number of members of the original Casino company. In the company also are Miss Jeanette Studley, who appeared in "Robin Hood" with the De Koven company, and Miss Nelle Fleming, who will be remembered as having taken the part of Patti-Sing in last season's Redpath production of "The Mikado."

The stage and lighting effects of "The Chocolate Soldier" will be a revelation as to what can be done in this direction on the Chautauqua platform.

The scene is laid in wartime in Bulgaria. Love, patriotism and comedy all figure in this great opera.

The entire production is presented under the personal supervision of Mr. Ralph Dunbar, who gave the Chautauqua audiences "The Mikado" last season and the White Hussars and Cathedral Choir the preceding years. Mr. Dunbar is thoroughly in sympathy with the ideals and principles of the Chautauqua movement as is no other producer of the day and in placing this production in his hands the Redpath management did so with perfect confidence that the results would be in complete harmony with the desires and tastes of the patrons.

Redpath seven day Chautauqua week, Marion, Ky., June 25th to July 2nd., inclusive.

War-time Responsibility— Yours and Ours

National necessity has put a new responsibility on every motorist.

SANE ECONOMICS IN THE HOUSEHOLD

Mrs. Christine Frederick Will Discuss Topic at Chautauqua Here.

HINTS ON HOW TO SAVE

Noted Expert Nationally Known Through Her Newspaper and Magazine Articles Will Give Results of "Applecroft" Experiments.

Mrs. Christine Frederick with whom almost every housewife in America is familiar through her books on home economics and her articles on that subject which appear in the metropolitan daily papers, the farm magazines and the Ladies Home Journal, will be heard on the Redpath Chautauqua platform this season in a great lecture on "Economics in the Home."

Mrs. Frederick in her lecture will tell only of things which she has worked out in actual practice in her efficiency kitchen experiment station at Applecroft, her Long Island home. Mrs. Frederick is an authority on the subjects of efficient housekeeping, household purchasing and woman's influence in civic improvement. She was the only woman representative of consumers asked to appear before the congressional committee on anti-trust legislation.

MRS. CHRISTINE FREDERICK,

Her lecture on household efficiency fits wonderfully into the work of helping to win the war. Efficiency in the home means food and time saved, food for our allies and our armies overseas, time for Red Cross and other similar work here. Incidentally household efficiency means a cut in the cost of living.

Man Who Held 125 Jobs
in Three Years to Talk
Here Chautauqua Week

British Knight Will Speak at Redpath Chautauqua Here

ONEY FRED SWEET.

Oney Fred Sweet, Chicago newspaper man, who in three years held 125 jobs and wrote about them a series of supremely interesting newspaper articles, has been secured to tell the story of his varied industrial career on the Redpath Chautauqua platform here this season.

Here is a man who can tell how it feels to be "In the Other Fellow's Shoes," which is the title of his lecture.

Mr. Sweet's story, besides being interesting and full of humor, has a distinct economic value. It throws a vast amount of light upon industrial conditions as they actually exist. It is human and informative.

In his jobbing career Mr. Sweet, among other occupations, was a beggar on the streets, a steeple-jack, a fireman on the railroad, a Pullman porter, a clown with a circus, a cowboy, a lumberjack. He tells the story of these and many other jobs in his interesting Chautauqua lecture.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.

Having a school house to build at Cookseyville, The Crittenden County Board of Education, will receive sealed bids from any one who desires to erect this house, at 2 o'clock on Monday, June 10, 1918. The house to be completed within the time, and according to plans and specifications which may be seen in the Superintendents office, and will be given to the lowest and best bidder, unless the County Board should think it best to reject any and all bids, the right to do so being reserved.

Respectfully,

SIR JOHN FOSTER FRASER, F. R. G. S.

Sir John Foster Fraser, F. R. G. S., who will speak on "The Checkerboard of Europe" on the fourth night of the Chautauqua, is England's most famous newspaper special correspondent. As a recognition of services rendered his country during the great war the honor of knighthood was conferred upon him by King George in Buckingham Palace in June, 1917.

Sir John is said to have done more varied traveling than any man alive and has described his wanderings in a dozen books. He has long been famous in Great Britain as a speaker with a personality. The London Press says, "He is as brilliant on the platform as he is with his pen."

Fifty thousand voices—What a grand chorus! And that's the number of American men and women, who are publicly praising Doan's Kidney Pills for relief from backache, kidney and bladder ills. They say it to friends. They tell it in the home papers. Marion people are in the chorus.

very strength away. My back ached and pained constantly and I was lame, especially mornings. The least exertion tired me and when I overdid I had headaches and dizzy spells. I was very nervous and the kidney secretions passed too frequently, making me get up at night. I got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at Haynes & Taylor's drug store. They helped me from the first and I continued taking them until entirely cured."

Captain George Frederick Campbell, of the Royal Flying Corps, has lived. Captain Campbell is to speak on the sixth night of the Chautauqua.

Captain's father was the first of his family to fall, being killed in the memorable battle of Mons. At the battle of Loos his brothers, Bruce and Jamie Campbell, both lieutenants, fell with their faces to the foe, and in a trench raid not long after, his remaining brother, Captain Blakle Campbell, was killed.

An invalid mother and a loving sister remained to mourn in the old ancestral home in the Mull of Kintyre back in Bonnie Scotland. Then his sister, bent on an errand of mercy, embarked on the ill-fated Arabic, and was counted among the lost when the vessel was sunk by a German torpedo. This fatal crushing blow killed the mother. Captain, then a Lieutenant of the Highlanders, was left alone.

Campbell was already a soldier of the king when the war broke out in 1914. A lieutenant stationed in India, he was ordered at once to the European front. In a few weeks he was fighting to stem the Hun advance on Paris.

At the battle of Neuve Chappelle in 1916, Captain Campbell was severely wounded, his hip bone being shattered by a bayonet thrust through the abdomen. Several months in a hospital followed. On his recovery he was declared unfit for further duty with his regiment. He then sought and found further service in the Royal Flying Corps. For two years, until again severely wounded, he fought the Hun in the air.

Probably no man alive has seen more fighting on the ground and in the air than Captain Campbell.

Captain Campbell, in his lecture, "A Soldier of the Sky," will tell of his flying fights on the western front, most of which he has written in his book of the same title that was recently published.

"Never refuse a fight," said Captain Campbell recently, "is the motto of the Royal Flying Corps. We learned that lesson early in the war, as the Hun is far inferior to our flying men in morale.

When he left active service Captain Campbell was fourth "ace" in the Royal Flying Corps. He worked in the single-seated scout type of machine, in which the pilot operates both the gun and machine.

Captain Campbell also took part in many bombing raids, the longest being an attack on the railway station and three supply trains at Seclin on the Belgian frontier. The station and tracks were demolished and troop and supply movements held up several days.

MARGERY MAXWELL

GRAND OPERA STAR

Was Principal With Galli-Curci in "Dinorah."

SINGS AT CHAUTAUQUA HERE

As Member of Chicago Grand Opera Company Scored Successes in Chicago, New York and Boston.

An evening with a grand opera star has twice before proven a great attraction on the Redpath Chautauqua circuit, and now after one season without a prima donna, this year's program is to have a grand opera star in Miss Margery Maxwell, the gifted young soprano who appeared this year as a principal with Galli-Curci in the Chicago Grand Opera company in Chicago, and who accompanied that organization on its tour to New York and Boston.

Miss Maxwell will appear on the third night of the Chautauqua here, accompanied by two assisting artists, a violinist and a pianist.

Miss Maxwell made her debut with the Chicago Opera company this fall as Una Capra in "Dinorah." This first appearance was a decided success and especially noteworthy as she was one of the six principals with Amelita Galli-Curci and Giacomo Rinaldi in the cast. The following day in all Chicago papers the critics commended her work most highly.

During the Chicago opera season Miss Maxwell sang in "Dinorah" several times and also in "Manon," "The Jewels of the Madonna," "Lakme," "Francesca di Rimini" and "Louise," each time delighting the audience with the unusual beauty and range of her lyric soprano voice.

Mme. Galli-Curci is most enthusiastic in her praise of "the (American) Mees) Maxwell's superb voice."

At the close of the Chicago season, no one was surprised to find Miss Maxwell among those chosen for the Eastern tour of the Chicago Grand Opera company. The recognition given her in the East was no less than she received in her home city. The New York Morning Telegraph used a large picture of her with an interesting feature story the morning after her first appearance and the Evening Mail, in a Saturday edition, published her photograph in a group with Geraldine Farrar; Ricardo Stracciari and Gordon Key.

Miss Maxwell is a pleasing, whole-hearted American girl. All her spare minutes she spends in knitting and at present she says one of her great ambitions is to go to France and sing for the wounded soldiers.

Built With Your Vacation in Mind 1918 REDPATH CHAUTAUQUA PROGRAM

Seven Cheer-Up Days

Quick to sense the public needs in a year when so many people are planning to take their vacations at home, the Redpath has arranged Seven Cheer-Up Vacation Days for each city on its circuit this season, and offers this Seven Day program for the same price as heretofore, $2.50, except for 10% War Tax.

You thought when the war broke out that the time to be entertained and inspired had passed; that serious and anxious thought must inevitably hold sway.

Miles of Smiles

When the boys began to go to the front this attitude changed. You did not want them to go away in gloom nor to remember your face as one of sadness. In fact, you sent them Smile Books and invited them to enjoy "Miles of Smiles."

Then you discovered that you could not do your best work in an atmosphere of gloom and suspense and finally concluded that you too need relaxation, entertainment and inspiration if you are to perform your greatest patriotic duties and "Keep the Home Fires Burning."

See program for detailed list of vacation attractions.

Sun's Daily Thought.

O folds of white and scarlet! O blue field with your silver stars! May fond eyes welcome you, willing feet follow you, strong hearts cherish you, and dying lips give you their blessing! Ours by inheritance, ours by allegiance, ours by affection — long may you float out free winds of heaven, the emblem of liberty, the hope of the world. — Anon.

The President of the United States and the Secretary of the Treasury have designated Friday, June 28th next as National War Savings Day and it will be generally observed throughout the country. Here in Marion the period from June 24th to 28th will be Pledge Week, in which the people will pledge themselves to buy during the rest of 1918 the quota of war Saving Stamps allotted to this City.

He who would be strong in faith let him first be strong in good works. He who bends his knees in productive toil during that extra hour of daylight has earned the right to bend his knees at bedtime in supplication to his God to "Give us this day our daily bread."

Work Or Fight

The following editorial appeared last week in the Paducah Sun and it suits the case here and everywhere:

"The city and county officials are going to enforce to the hilt, the new Kentucky Vagrancy Law, beginning with next Monday.

From that time on any man who cannot show 36 hours good work in every week will stand convicted of vagrancy. Anything less than that will not do.

Age and station cut no figure, so long as a man is able bodied.

The man who has an independent income can't sit around whittling sticks any more than the pool room bum. Both are ordered to work. Both must seek employment that is useful and productive or get a job with Uncle Sam killing Huns.

That is a matter of choice, but one or the other must be done.

This nation needs every ounce of its man-power. It's high time the useless were run down and put to work or put into the trenches.

Today, women are bending their backs in the fields, and bowing behind the plow. Who is going to longer tolerate idleness on the part of men?

Not Paducah.

Not McCracken county. You loafers get a gun or go to work. Either that or wake up some morning to a nice sunny job repairing the public highways.

Get busy.

Fell Into Well.

Aranelle Postleweight, the two year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allie Postleweight had a miraculous escape from death last week when she fell in a dry cistern, head foremost. Her father was in the cistern where he kept jugs of water and milk as it was a cool place and as her mother was ill and in bed the little tot walked into the uncovered cistern in search of her daddy. Fortunately he grabbed her dress as she fell, thus breaking her fall, otherwise she would have been killed instantly. As it was she received only a cut on her cheek which is healing nicely and no further trouble is feared.

Mrs. Martha Franks,
Marion, Ky.

Dear mother:

This after-noon I will try to write you a few lines to let you know I have not forgotten you, though I am far, far away from my old Kentucky home.

I am well and enjoying life and hope you are the same. I have had a real pleasant voyage. It has been interesting all the way. I am in good spirits and mean to be as long as there is any life in me.

It seems hard to us all now but I feel like we will come out all right yet. I am trusting in the Lord for my part of it and am worrying very little. Not half so much as you are I am sure. You must take it all as easy as possible for you know it is the Lord's will that I should be away from you now and it wont help any to worry. Just pray to the Lord to preserve my life and help me to return to you some day.

I feel like the Lord is with me now and I am trying to live right so if I should be called to my reward before I see you again I can meet you in that happy home above.

The boys are singing, "Just Break the News to Mother." It is a little sad as I am writing to you but it is sweet to me because the name, mother is in it.

I think of you dear sister and those dear little boys ever day and pray to God to protect me and send me home to you all some day and I feel like He will, but if I should be numbered among the dead I want you to see that Florence and those little boys—bless their little hearts—have every thing they need and try to give them their part of education.

There is so much rocking that I can't write so you can read it. Kiss the little boys for me and tell all of my friends hello for me and take good care of your self and think as little about me as you possible can.

May God bless and protect you all.

Your boy,
J. E. Franks.

TO RESIST THE ATTACK

of the germs of many diseases such as Grip, Malaria, means for all of us—night or day. These germs are everywhere in the air we breathe. The odds are in favor of the germs, if the liver is inactive and the blood impure.

What is needed most is an increase in the germ-fighting strength. To do this successfully you need to put on healthy flesh, rouse the liver to vigorous action, so it will throw off these germs, and purify the blood so that there will be no weak spots, or soil for germ-growth.

We claim for Dr. Pierces Golden Medical Discovery that it does all this in a way peculiar to itself.

It cures troubles caused by torpid liver or impure blood.

WOODFORD, TENN.—"This is to certify that I have used Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for my two little boys. One had night sweats, poor appetite, sallow complexion, and had quite growing, but after giving him, part of a bottle of the 'Discovery' he commenced to gain and grow. He doesn't have the night sweats and looks much better. My other little boy had scrofula and this medicine cured him after the doctor's medicines had failed. I do not hesitate to recommend the 'Discovery' at all times."—MRS. ROSA LEE HOGAS, Route 1.

Dunbar's Revue—Last Night of Chautauqua Week

FROM THE PARADE OF THE ALLIES.

Dunbar's Revue, the big joy-night jubilee program, was conceived and produced for the Redpath Chautauquas exclusively by Ralph Dunbar of Melodeon and Hussar fame. This company presents a program of novelties including such features as "Melody Land" and a travesty on the light opera, "The Mikado." The Revue closes with a great patriotic climax introducing the "Grand Parade of the Allies" and the spirit of Joan of Arc. The company will be composed of singers, players and monologists with various scenic effects for the different parts and numerous costume changes.

The first Revue of the kind ever presented on any Chautauqua program, it is a step in advance—a big novelty but at the same time an event of great merit as well as entertainment.

A number of local people will take part.

FORD'S FERRY

(delayed from last week.)

The Red Cross members of this place and vicinity are working diligently to raise funds for the Red Cross Organization.

The following ladies donated hens to the Red Cross coop: Madames, Chas. Dowdy, Zoa Curry, Ester Ward, Mary Wathen, Tom Pickering, Ben Rankin, Carrie Wofford, Daisy Rankin, George Lankin, Will Alvis, Lafe Clement, Lillian Easty, Eva Franklin, Des Clement, Ursie Truitt, Ernest Vaughn, Hugh McConnell, Belle Lucas, Jane Hamilton, Misses Eula Clement, Maude Wofford, Glenna Rankin, Ida Clement, Joanna Rankin, Beatrice Alvis, Beulah Rankin, Edwina Rankin, and Mr. Ed Carlin.

A large crowd attended the ice cream supper Saturday night given for the benefit of the Red Cross, despite inclement weather. Every one did his part and $60 was taken in clear of expenses. A cake was sold for the prettiest girl, Misses Carrie Ainsworth of Hbron, Miss Thompson of Sturgis, and Miss Ruby Sturgeon of Weston being nominated in the beginning as the three prettiest girls present, it only took about twenty minutes to decide which was prettiest, Miss Ainsworth winning by over eight hundred votes.

The Str. Ellen R. of the West Kentucky Coal Co. brought down a number of people from Caseyville and Sturgis to the Red Cross supper Saturday night.

Twenty one ladies registered here May 31st. and June 1st offering to do their "bit" to help win the war.

Misses Kittie and Ebbie Wathen spent last week-end with Mrs. Sallie Alvis.

W. R. Williams took a nice bunch of hogs to Evansville on Str. Lowery Saturday.

Mrs. James Rankin Jr. visited here the first of the week.

Mr. Huddleston, manager of the Spencer Mines and J. S. Ainsworth each made a liberal contribution to the Red Cross Saturday night.

Van Pickering and Ed Carlin donated the fish for the Red Cross supper Saturday night.

HUMOROUS PHILOSOPHER

Lou J. Beauchamp Will Lecture at Chautauqua.

MIXES FUN AND WISDOM

Dean of Platform, Great Traveler and Writer, Deals With Subjects of the Hour.

"The Humorous Philosopher" is the title given everywhere to Lou J. Beauchamp, one of the headline lecturers of the 1918 Chautauqua program.

This title was given to Mr. Beauchamp because of his happy faculty of delivering his messages with an accompaniment of mirth and fun. Stories sparkling with wit and humor abound throughout his lectures. He is an entertainer of the first rank as well as a lecturer.

Mr. Beauchamp has had a remarkable career. His mother died when he was a babe and much of his childhood was spent with the Indians of the Southwest with whom he was left by his grandfather, an Indian trader.

At thirteen he learned the printer's trade and began his wanderings and writings. Although a graduate of no school except the College of the Spare Hours he has been reporter and editor on metropolitan dailies and at thirty had written a book which has been read by a hundred thousand people and translated into many tongues.

Keeping a record of every mile he has traveled, both in the old world and the new, Mr. Beauchamp has to date covered over 1,000,000 miles of the earth's surface.

Will Tell Chautauqua Audiences of His 125 Jobs

ONEY FRED SWEET IN SOME OF HIS MANY JOBS.

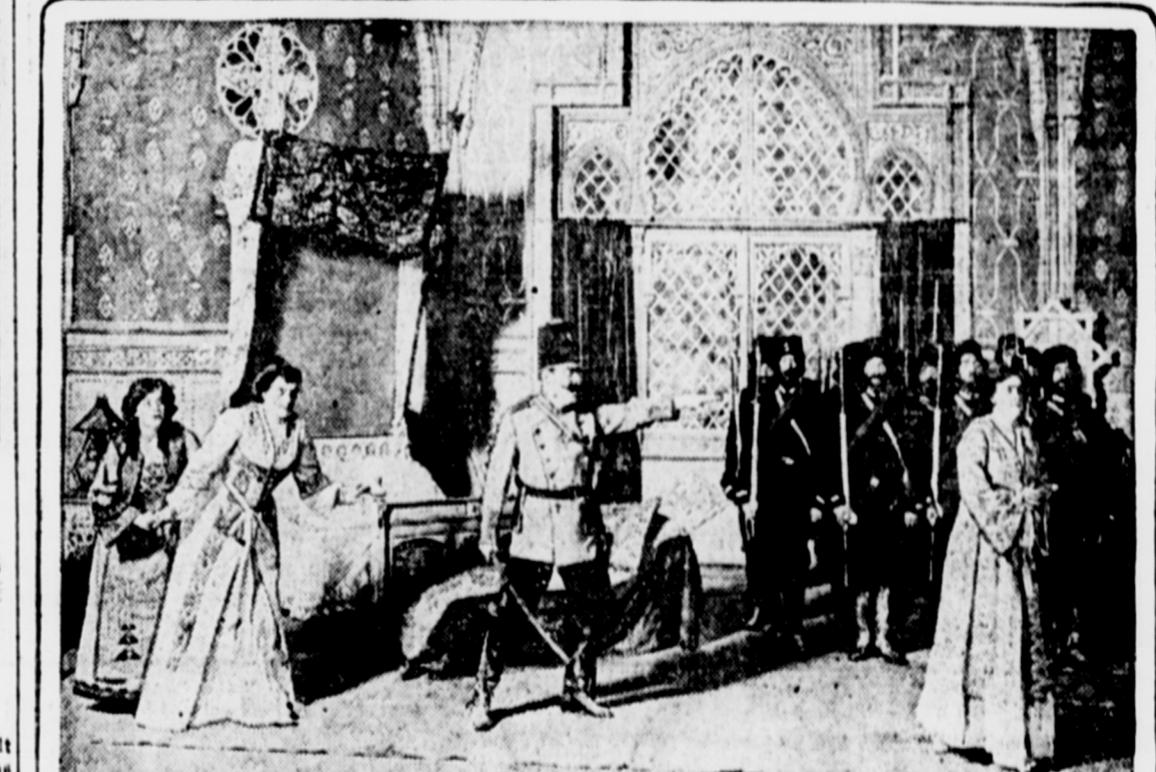

Oney Fred Sweet, who will lecture on the Redpath Chautauqua this season, is said to have worked at more jobs than any man who has ever lived.

During a period of three years he tried out over 125 jobs. He tackled everything from shoe shining to banking. He went West and hired out as a cowboy, he went into the North woods as a lumberjack. He was a gypsy, a trapeze performer. He was a Pullman porter, a railroad freeman, a dog catcher, a marriage license clerk, a detective, an animal trainer, a bellboy, a steeplejack and a flat janitor. He hankered to live the other fellow's life. He will tell of these experiences in his forthcoming lecture here.

"I am not at all soured as the result of my three years' experience," he says, "but I don't envy the other fellow quite as much as I used to. He has troubles of his own. I realize now what a tragedy it is to be unprepared to do any one thing well, and I realize what a king the man is who really has the goods."

"The Chocolate Soldier" a Big Chautauqua Feature

"The Chocolate Soldier," greatest of all modern light operas, will be presented on the fifth night of the Redpath Chautauqua here this season. In the company of 30, including orchestra, will be a number of the original cast from the Casino theatre, New York, where the company holds the prize record of a three-year run. Only in the largest cities of the country has

"The Chocolate Soldier" been offered before, and it is only through Redpath prestige and influence that the rights have been secured for the Redpath Deluxe Chautauqua circuit.

Grand Finale of Dunbar's Revue Featuring the Grand Parade of the Allies Here Chautauqua Week

The closing evening of Chautauqua week will take the form of a big program, a succession of novelties, and a feature to be known as "Melody Land." This program will be known as "Dunbar's Revue," being conceived and produced exclusively for the Redpath Chautauquas by Ralph Dunbar. Mr. Dunbar is already known to the Redpath Chautauqua for his spectacular production, "The Mikado," last season. A number of local people will take part in the great Revue.

Redpath seven day Chautauqua, Marion, Ky., opens Tuesday morning, June 25th, 1918.

Notice To All Road Overseers.

The laws of this state required the magistrates of this county to elect a County Road Engineer, or designate some one to perform the duties thereof, and they elected E. Jeffrie Travis, Road Engineer, thereby taking all matters pertaining to working the roads, and repairing bridges out of the hands of the County Judge. Therefore all Overseers are advised to consult the Road Engineer, E. Jeffrie Travis, on all road matters.

Jailer Shelton Sets 'Em Up.

If Jailer J. C. Shelton feeds all persons who enter the jail to the kind of a dinner that he served Thursday, then he need not be surprised at the number of inmates increasing most any time. While fiscal court was in session Thursday, Jailer Shelton quietly slipped the word to them that dinner would be waiting for them at the county prison, while the members and other county officials were not accustomed to dining at such an institution; they accepted the invitation with pleasure and from the way they acted at the table and the expressions after they left, it is an assured fact that they had such a good time that they will wish for another invitation. — Mayfield Messenger.

Ker-Pi!
She was a dress than the dawn. She was fair across the bier room, such was her grace. Every body looked. The typewriters stopped. Even the telegraph a day and the office been freshened by such a vision. She approached our desk. Proudly we rose. With a smile that revealed the whitest of teeth, she asked, "Where's the city editor at?"

Noted Expert on Household Economics Will Show Chautauqua Audiences How to Save

MRS. CHRISTINE FREDERICK IN HER EFFICIENCY KITCHEN AT APPLEROFT, LONG ISLAND

"Women can help win the war by efficiency in the home," says Mrs. Christine Frederick, author and lecturer on household economics, who will be heard on the Redpath Chautauquas here this season.

Mrs. Frederick, it is safe to say, is known to nearly all housewives through her articles on household efficiency in the metropolitan newspapers and the Ladies' Home Journal. The Pathé-Frères moving picture firm has put her work before moving-picture audiences and farm women know her through her Farmers' Institute lectures and her writings in farm magazines. Close to one million copies of her publications—books, booklets, charts, correspondence courses, are in the hands of women.

Mrs. Frederick is a graceful and enthusiastic speaker with a splendid voice. She typifies in an attractive way the modern, young, college-trained housewife and mother, and knows how to entertain as well as interest an audience.

(delayed from last week.)

Since our last communication from this place a number of events have occurred, and doubtless some of them may be worth reporting.

The farmers, the foundation of all legitimate enterprises though somewhat pressed for lack of helpers are earnestly striving to finish their farm work the best they can under the existing circumstances.

During the last season, caused by the recent rains quite a number of tobacco plants have been transplanted and the prospects are favorable for a large crop of the Indian-weed.

The wheat and hay harvest is now in the near future and while the harvest may be great yet the laborers are few.

The gardeners and truck growers who are trying to surpass the ordinary way of gardening, during the period of time caused by the great war dilemma, are, in addition to cabbage, potatoes, onions, cucumbers, etc., planting squash, muskmelon, broomcorn and ninety day corn and if they had ground enough to justify, would plant a patch of sorghum.

MEDICINE VS FOOD

Do not buy something which you already have. You have food which you feed your horses, cattle and sheep, but when you want medicine, buy only medicine. That is what you get in B. A. Thomas' Stock Remedy. We sell it and guarantee it to be medicine. We tell you that it will tone up the entire system of your stock and aids digestion, thereby causing them to get all the food value out of the grain that you feed them.

Obituary

William Hardy Fox was born March 5, 1881. He was 37 years 3 months and 10 days old. "Bill" as he was familiarly called was the son of Noah and Evaline Fox and was the 6th child having 10 brothers and sisters. His father, one brother and two sisters have already preceded him to the world above.

He professed faith in Christ about 18 years ago but never united with any church.

He was married to Annie Todd and to this union was born two children, Verna Evelyn and Willie Kathrine.

The funeral was conducted by Rev. W. T. Oakley in the Baptist church at Shady Grove in the presence of a very large crowd. All the city council of Providence were present except two. Mr. Hunter the mayor of the city with Mr. Morse and Mr. Canada paid beautiful tributes to the memory of Mr. Fox.

He was true to his convictions as an officer. He was chief of police of Providence.

The body was interred in the Shady Grove cemetery the and grave was covered with pretty flowers.

During the period of the War, we will not sell an American Midget Roller Mill which is being used for the manufacture of flour or our Government, with flour and feed.

DO YOUR BIT. Help the Government by saving the freight on wheat and flour. Relieve the railroads of this unnecessary congestion by establishing in your community one of these wonderful American Midget Midget Roller Flour Mills.

And Make Money, Too

$150 to $1,000 per month can be made with this permanent, substantial and dignified business.

This wonderful self-contained roller mill is revolutionizing milling. Makes spendid flour at a better yield than the Government requires. One man without previous milling experience can run it successfully. Small cost, small power, easy operation enables it to make a "Better Barrel of Flour Cheaper." You can sack your flour under our nationally advertised trade "Flavo."

Our Service Department inspects your products each month free and keeps you up to date. Costs of mills from 15 to 100 barrels per day. You can start with the smallest size if you have $2,000 to invest. Sold on 30 days' free trial.
